

Henleaze Infant School

'Be kind, be curious, be you'

29th November 2024 Bulletin

Headteacher update:

This week the sound of song has continued around the school through music lessons, singing assembly as well as the festive choir and nativity rehearsals. The atmosphere and sense of community this creates is really what makes working in a school such a joy. The arrival of our school tree (decorated by children) adds some extra sparkle.

Other highlights this week include a joint school council meeting with Henleaze Junior School. Both councils were discussing improvements to the outdoor environment and have agreed to come back together at the start of next term to decide a shared project.

The other was the KS1 dodgeball tournament attended by a number of children this afternoon. Miss Evans reported that the children were great ambassadors for the school, showing great teamwork and sporting behaviours.

Have a great weekend.

Kind Regards,

Gemma Fricker

Important Messages:

Fully funded holiday clubs this winter

This winter, Bristol's children and young people can dive into a world of fun, learning, and friendship through Your Holiday Hub! Running from Monday, 23rd December to Friday, 3rd January, Your Holiday

Another great week of children 'reading for the stars!'

Congratulations everyone!

More great fundraising news!

The FHIS Christmas tea towel sales have raised £1455! Thanks so much to Allannah, Jade & Victoria who worked so hard on the project. A special thanks to Louise at The Live Ink Co. who provide Eco friendly ethical garment printing. Louise printed all of the tea towels at no cost meaning bumper profits for the school!

It's the HENSA Christmas

Bazaar next weekend!

Hub is offering a wide variety of fully funded activities for eligible children from Reception age to Year 11 who receive benefits-related free school meals. With over 30 providers across the city, children and young people can join in activities ranging from sports and games to cooking, music, and arts—ensuring there's something for everyone this festive season!
